OFFICIAL DAILY PROGRAM

SIXTY YEARS OF RODEO

Guy Weadick was a leathery cowpoke who hit Calgary in 1912 with a saddle on one arm, and a dream in his heart — to stage the biggest and best rodeo the old west had ever seen!

He made that dream come true. And for sixty years it's been a booming reality. He started a tradition that has seen the Calgary Stampede become the epitome of rodeos and exhibitions everywhere.

Guy Weadick is gone. But the indomitable flame that he enfused into that first Stampede burns as brightly today as ever. The fun and excitement that Calgarians and visitors share on this 60th Anniversary spring from traditions begun in 1912.

Inscribed on a plaque dedicated to his memory, these words hold the truth that is the Calgary Stampede:

"To Guy Weadick — he built better than he knew."

NEW PROGRAM EACH DAY

SPECIAL EVENTS

"ICARUS THE BIRD MAN"

flying high above the infield suspended from a giant kite, zooming in to land in front of the Grandstand.

WILD BUFFALO STAMPEDE

eight Indian braves in war paint charge out of the chutes on the backs of the wildest, wooliest buffalo ever captured.

OLD TIME BRONC RIDING

A special 60th Anniversary feature — top cowboys dress in 1912 fashion riding some of the toughest broncs in the style of the first Stampede.

RODEO CLOWNS

Rick Young — an ex-bull rider from Tickfaw, U.S.A. teamed with Chuck Henson the best bull fighter in modern Rodeo with Ernie Marshall as the "Barrel Man" — all in a barrel of laughs.
